Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith, for His Highness's perusal, a D.O. letter dated 30th March received from Dewan Bahadur Mr. J.S. Chakravarti, Comptroller, in reply to my enquiry of the 4th idem as to whether he would be agreeable to a two years' extension of service and a salary of Rs. 1,800 per mensem.

2. Mr. Chakravarti states that the terms mentioned are not exactly what he expected with reference to article 764(IV)(b), Civil Service Regulations, and the circumstances of his case, and requests that the matter may be placed once more before His Highness with special reference to this aspect of the case. He adds that he would loyally and thankfully accept His Highness's gracious commands on this representation.

3. I have informally consulted the First and Second Members of Council again in the matter. They do not consider any modification in the decision already arrived at necessary or desirable, as they consider the terms already settled are very liberal.

4. His Highness was pleased to decide the terms (that is, an extension of service for 2 years and a salary of Rs.1,800 per mensem) after the views of the Members of Council and myself had been submitted to His Highness. If, therefore, no change in that decision is considered necessary, I request final approval to the proposals, so that the Government of India may be at once addressed as regards the proposed extension.
